MAHARANI

Moser

LONG LIVE LIFE

Whether it's a grand wedding, a birthday party or an evening with friends in the garden, Maharani gives every occasion a celebratory feel.

MASTERFUL ORNAMENTATION

Today's Maharani design is based on an original model from 1895, by the Šumava glassmakers Meyr's Nephew in Adolfovo near Vimperk. After the glassworks was taken over by Moser in the 1930s, the collection rapidly gained popularity. It continues to enchant customers all over the world.

GOLD AND PEARLS IN EVERY GLASS

Maharani is characterised by the elegant shape of the cup, richly decorated with classicist flowers and drapery, which progresses fluidly to the stem with its six-sided cut. The fine lace of the engraved floral motifs is complemented by hand-painted gold lines and a pearl-cut finish.

THE TRAIL LEADS TO INDIA

Maharani is the traditional title for the wife of the maharaja. The collection owes its name to a commission for Maharani Sethu Lakshmi Bayi, who from 1924–1931 was regent of the southern Indian kingdom of Travancore in the present-day Indian state of Kerala. Not only Maharani but other Moser crystal was also ordered by the queen's successor, the Maharaja of Travancore.

Maharaja of Alirajpur

Mohammed V, King of Morocco

Asfa Wossen, Ethiopian Crown Prince

The prominent owners have included King Mohammed V of Morocco, the Ethiopian crown prince Asfa Wossen, Indonesia's President Sukarno, the Bahraini royal family and the Maharaja of Alirajpur.

PUT YOUR OWN COLLECTION TOGETHER

The noble elegance of the subtle floral engraving on the Maharani glasses is best appreciated in a series of several sizes. Feel free to choose the combination that makes the greatest impression on you, just like real maharani or maharaja.
